Morning Presentation: The Right Person

3D Tai Hoi Yu
Fok Chau Yuk

A: Good morning, everyone. We are from 3D. I am Fok Chau Yuk.

B: I am Tai Hoi Yu.

A: Today, we are going to talk about a story, "The Right Person".

B: Once upon a time, there was a wise king. He had two sons.

He appointed some great scholars to teach them all arts. After a few years of teaching, the king fell ill badly. So, he wanted to choose the next king for his kingdom. He wanted to test his sons' abilities .

A: He called both of them and gave a room to each of them. He said, "You must fill this room completely with anything you wish. It can be anything! But there should be no space left behind and you should not seek advice from anyone!"

B: The next day, the king visited the elder's son room. The room was completely filled with hay. The king sighed on the foolishness of the elder son. He was disappointed.

A: Then, he went to the younger son's room, but it was kept closed. The king knocked at the door of the room. The second son asked his father to get in and closed the door again. There was darkness everywhere and the king shouted at his second son angrily.

B: If I were the king, I would feel very sad as both my sons were not smart enough to be the next king.

A: The ending of the story would surprise you! In the dark room, the second son lighted a candle and said, "I have filled this room with light!" The king felt very happy and hugged his son proudly.

He understood that the younger son would be the right person to rule the kingdom after the king.

B: Sometimes, we need to think out of the box to have new and creative ideas.

Some methods such as brainstorming, learning new things and paying attention to other people's ideas could help train our thinking skills. That's the end of our presentation. Thank you for listening.
